held, which was presided over by Rev. Dr. Fisher, president of Hanover College, at which prayers were offered for the safety and protection of Rev. Mr. Garrett and wife and all other faithful foreign missionaries. When last heard from Mr. Garrett and his wife, with several other Protestant missionaries, had taken refuge from the infuriated native mobs in the foreign customs building at Wuhu, which was being protected by the gun-boat Palos. It is now feared that they have fallen victims to the lawless Kolaghwei brotherhood, who are using the foreign question for the purpose of disturbing the country, by inciting mobs and other acts of violence, to bring about a change in the government. It is said that in recent outbreaks in Wahu in which property has been destroyed losses to the amount of $8,000,000 have been sustained.

THE BIG LABOR CONGRESS

To Decide Whether Workingmen of the World Will Adopt Socialism.

LONDON, Aug. 8.-The international labor congress to be held at Brussels, beginning Aug. 16, will probably do much toward deciding whether the workingmen of the world will march under the Socialist or under the purely trade-union banner. If the proposition is successful to adopt as a uniform designation for all labor parties of the world a common title containing the term "Socialist" then socialism will have triumphed at least in name. But if the socialist designation is omitted pure tradesunionism as it is in England and the United States will have won a victory. Thomas Mann said to a correspondent: "It is the parting of the ways, and for my part I am not a Socialist."

It is believed that the experience of this congress will go far toward solving the as yet undecided question of the practicability of international labor organization. The coming congress in Brussels is the successor of the international labor congress held in 1889 in the Rue de Laniery, Paris. This had nothing to do with the strictly socialist Marx congress, held at the same time in the Rue Roucheart, and composed chiefly of German Socialist Democrats, including several members of the Reichstag. The Englishmen in that congress, of whom there were a few, represented only themselves. In the Rue Laniery congress the English work-ingmen were represented by not less than thirty-nine delegates, some of them, such as Fenwick, being purely trades-unionists and others, like H. M. Hindman, purely Socialists. It is but fair to the Socialists to say that they spared no effort to work in barmony with the trades-unionists, and the latter were willing to tolerate the socialism of Hindman, but would have nothing to do with Marxism. As the Rue Laniery congress called the congress that is to meet a week from to-morrow, the conditions, with a similar representation of elements, would be favorable for harmony. There is one question to come before the congress which, at the time it was suggested, was little expected to have the importance it has since assumed, namely: The attitude which the organized workers of all countries should assume with regard to the Jewish question. This was offered by the American union of workers speaking the Hewbrew language. It is expected to evoke an exciting debate, for the English trades-unions have their faces set against imported Hebrew labor, and the same feeling is spreading throughout the continent. The Jews, on the other hand, have eloquent and earnest advocates who will plead the right of the chosen people to a place among the workers of the earth. It is believed in England that no plea will overcome the repugnance conceived toward the Russian refugees; but the Jews, it is said, will be satisfied if they can obtain an influential indorsement from America, which they look upon as the promised land. Among other subjects to be considered is the consecration of the first of May to the principle of the eight-hour working day. America will be interested in the proposition to hold the next international congress in 1893, and to have at the same time an international demonstration in that place. The Newcastle congress will be one of gates represent 2,000,000 of workingmen. The recently-formed union of London clerks made a brave show in Hyde Park today. They went there to protest against long hours and other grievances. Many women marched in the procession, which was very respectable in appearance. The places of clerks are so easily filled that unti! recently they were afraid to form a union for fear of general discharge, but learning that they had not only the sympathy of the public, but also the good will of many employers who were willing to do better if all employers were on an equal footing, the union was formed. The rain had a dampening effect, but the speeches were none the less emphatic, as well as

DUEL WITH SWORDS.

One Colonel Thrusts His Weapon Into Another Officer's Liver-Drought in Mexico. CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 9.-A duel was fought at Piedad, near here, Thursday morning, between Cols. Francisco Novoa and Manuel Blanco. The duel was brought about by a dispute, the two colonels using language of the harshest nature. Novoa had for his seconds General Floreas and Col. Roderigo Valdes, and Blanco was supported by Deputies Francisco Romero, a celebrated duelist, and Antonio Tovar, the author of the dueling code of Mexico. The arms chosen were swords, and, according to the report, it was to have been a duel to the death. The assaults, after the signal for attack was given, were ten. In these ten assaults Blanco was wounded in the right arm, again on the throat, and was laid out by a thrust in the liver, he alone giving up after being so weak that he could not stand up, when the seconds ordered the duel to come to a close. Novoa had several scratches, none, however, worth mentioning. In view of the fact that President Diaz forbade dueling in the army, by a special decree some months ago, it is probable that the colonels will be placed under arrest and punished.

Those who have lived twenty-five years on the Rio Grande have never seen so much misery among the Mexican population as this year. The staple crop of the Rio Grande valley is corn and the Mexican frijole, but the drought has been so terrible for the last eighteen months that scarcely anything has been raised, and stock has died by thousands. Many men, who, two years ago, were considered well off have nothing left but their lands. Hundreds of laboring men have left the frontier counties and are finding work north of the Nueces river. If the drought continues until the cold "northers" come on there will be but few cattle to live drought is confined to a few counties in Texas, but extends far into old Mexico.

Rumors were current on the street this afternoon to the effect that important changes would soon accur in the Cabinet. For some time past the press has given much space to the whispers that Gomez Farias contemplated resigning as Secretary of the Treasury. No confirmation of the report has been obtained officially. Yesterday Mr. Teodono Dehsa, collector of customs at the port of Vera Cruz, was closeted with President Diaz for some hours, and political prophets predict that the conference has some bearing on the rumored change, coupling Mr. Dehsa's name with the successorship. In this connection it is stated that Lielabastada will become official Mayor, and Mr. Gambsa goes to Vera Cruz as collector of the port.

Charles J. Stevens, an American, died at the American Hospital here this morning of dysentery. Dr. Stephens, as he was known to everybody, has been in Mexico since November last, engaged in collecting material for an extensive and important il-Instrated work on Mexico and Central America, which he had arranged to publish in Philadelphia and New York.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

Probability that the Two Countries Will Effect a Commercial League. PARIS, Aug. 9 .- M. Ribot, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, will go to Lausanne at the end of this month on a vacation, during which he will meet, either at Lausanne or at Lucerne, the Russian Foreign Minister. M. De Giers, who is also about to make a holiday sojourn in Switzerland. The meetling is the subject of much speculation, apart from the Franco-Russian military entente already partially effected. Ribot, tie to volunteer seem equally desirous to go according to a diplomatic report, will seize | home the chance to consult with M. De Giers on the menacing attitude of the Dreibund toward France and Russia. Yesterday evening's North German Gazette frankly avows, what the French Foreign Office has long suspected, that the ultimate object of Germany in promoting a European commercial league was the conclusion of tariff conventions with all states outside of Europe. A semiofficial communication in the North German Gazette repudiates any design to isolate France or to interfere with Russian commerce, but the palpable result of the zollverein in placing the parties to the compact in advantageous position for the negotiation of commercial treaties with foreign states is dwelt upon. If M. Ribot succeeds, through his conference with M. DeGiers, in effecting an economic entente between the two countries, it will greatly add to the repute of both statesmen. M. Constans, Minister of Commerce, in a speech at Argenteuil, pointed at the with-drawal of the proscription of princely pretenders. He said the republic was open to all, but that newcomers must obey and not command. Referring to the workmen's pension bill, he said he believed that the plan could be carried out. In regard to the military forces of the country, he said that France had found many milliards of francs for the reorganization of the army, and he had no doubt that she could find many more. The army, he added, must be etrong in order to make the nation respected by other powers. In conclusion he announced that he would introduce in the Chamber a bill for the organization of a credit agricole.

ALLEGED INSURGENT PLOTS.

Attempts to Destroy Balmaceda's Two New Iron-Clads Thwarted by Their Officers. LONDON, Aug. 9 .- Startling information is in possession of the Chilian legation in reference to a conspiracy to destroy the two Chilian iron-clads, Presidente Pinto and Errazuriz. It appears that the sum of £300 was offered to an English maritime officer in the service of the Chilian government if he would undertake to blow up the Errazuriz. He refused the offer with indignation. While the vessel was in the harbor of Lisbon suspicious boats were seen approaching on several occasions at night, but the careful lookout on the vessel kept them at bay. There was no doubt of the purpose to blow up the vessel at Lisbon. While the Presidente Pinto was at Toulon a party of men attempted to join the crew. They looked so unlike ordinary sailors, two of them being unable to conceal their refinement of manner, that suspicion was aroused and the commander concluded to reject them, although in need of men. Proof afterward came to his knowledge that these men had been engaged to sink the shsp. There is also reason to believe that the running aground at Toulon was owing to treachery. The commander was so convinced of this that he sent a report to that effect to Paris. The Errazuriz is already safe at ses, and it is understood that the Pinto will soon be in position to follow, and that their arrival in Chili will put an end to the revolution.

NOBILITY IN THE DOCK.

A Woman with a Title, Charged with Being Drunk, Proves She Was Sober.

LONDON, Aug. 9.-Marlborough police court had the pleasure of greeting a titled lady, to-day, when Lady De la Zouche was in the dock for being drank while in charge of a horse. Evidence was given by a policeman that her ladyship was seen reeling in the saddle of a pony she was riding; that she seemed dazed, and that she smelt strongly of drink. She was taken to St. George's Hospital in an ambulance, and the house surgeon of that institution said she was drunk. The gate-keeper of Hyde Park, where the arrest was made, said the pony was undoubtedly restive, but, in spite of that, he thought the lady was drunk. The evidence which was called for the defense, showed that the animal was restive and threw Lady De la Zouche, who, when she was taken to the bospital, was galvanized. The defense was, further, that she was perfectly sober. Captain Hill Trevor, of the First Life Guards, was called, and he deposed that Lady De la Zouche was perfectly sober, and there was not the slightest pretense for thinking she had been drinking an hour and a half before the accident. Other evidence in support of her sobriety has been called. Lady De la Zouche deposed that she had taken no stimulants that morning. The magistrate said he thought some mistake had been made and accordingly dismissed the summons, a decision which was received with a great deal of applause.

Purifying a Church.

LONDON, Aug. 9 .- The ancient and unusual ceremony of reconciliation has been performed in a London church for the second time within a few months, although it had not been performed before for many years. The first case was that of a man who shot himself during services in St. Paul's Cathedral. The second case was three days ago. A poor tramp, as if in re-buke to the quality of Christianity which he had met in London, hung himself in the porch of the parish Church of St. Ethel-burg, by Shopsgate street. When found by the sexton the tramp was dead. His death being assumed to have polouted the edifice the Bishop of London held the quaint reconciliation service, the tramp meanwhile having been buried with the paupers.

Lafayette Car Company to Center Its Immense Plants in This State.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CROWN POINT, Aug. 9.-It was learned here to-day from Chicago that the sale of a large tract of real estate in the northern part of this county was closed yesterday evening. It comprises about 882 acres. owned by J. H. Collett, of Indianapolis, and was sold to the Lafayette Car-manufacturing Company, of Lafayette, for $400 per acre. The object of the company is to remove its immense plants from their present locations at Lafayette and Dayton to the new purchase at once. The tract has a frontage of about a mile on the Calumet river, and lies south and west of Clarke. It is about three miles west of the stockyards purchase at Toleston. The company will commence improving the tract immediately, and when manufacturing begins 2,500 men will be employed. This is one of the largest sales in this county this year, and will add one more large industry to the Calumet region.

Death of a Sweet Singer. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Aug. 9 .- Mrs. Jennie Tunnell, daughter of Hon. R. S. Ragan, died last night, after a lingering illness of consumption. Mrs. Tunnell was a well-known vocalist. She had probably appeared five hundred times on the stage at Meharry Hall, and always fairly electrified the audiences with her peculiarly sweet voice. She had traveled throughout the State and assisted at concerts, in which she invariably captured the applause that better-known talent, imported for the occasions, expected to receive. Hers was a natural gift, and her voice was so well suited to oratorio and grand opera singing that she often received offers from Eastern managers to place her in leading roles. She preferred a domestic life, however, and thus it was that student lovers of music at the university during the past ten years came to know her and shower their praises on her.

In Memory of General Browne.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINCHESTER, Aug. 9 .- Thomas Browne memorial services were held at the Methodist church in this city this evening. Not only Winchester citizens turned out to do honor to the memory of their distinguished deceased townsman, but Hon. Stanton J. Peelle, Hon. Henry U. Johnson, and others from a distance were present. Letters of regret and sympathy from President Harrison, Congressman Owen, Senator Sherman and many other leading men who were associated with General Browns in public life were read by Hon. Henry U. Johnson, after which the memorial address was delivered by Hon. James E. Watson. The address indicates that in Mr. Watson will be found a worthy successor of his deceased relative, whose memory this town honors.

The Liederkranz Picnic. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Aug. 9.—Members of the Indianapolis Schwaben Verein, Liederkranz and Saengerchor, accompanied by their friends, in all 600 people, came over from Indianapolis to-day and picnicked at Lodde's grove. Dancing and singing were the features. A "shell-worker" from the capital was chased out into the country by the police. In the afternoon, when beer was flowing freely, two constables arrested seven of the bartenders. They were arraigned before Justice Walton and fined, Prosecutor Haywood has issued a decree that saloon-keepers shall obey the law, and these arrests were made in that spirit. Special to the Indianapolis Journal Brazil, Aug. 9.—One of Indiana's noted politicians and lawyers, Maj. W. W. Carter, died this morning at 1 o'clock. Mr. Carter had been afflicted with brain trouble for over a year. Several months ago he grew worse, and was taken to the asylum at Indianapolis. After several weeks' confinement he returned home, temporarily relieved, since which time he has been more or less ailing. The past few days he has been unconscious, and remained in this state until death. In 1868 Mr. Carter was a candidate for Congress against D. W. Voorhees, and was beaten by a small majority. He was appointed revenue collector by President Arthur, which position he held for three years.

Fire in the Hold of a Steamship, of Which the Passengers Were Unaware. NEW YORK, Aug. 9.-The steamship Cachemiere arrived in this port last Friday evening, with 160 Italian steerage passengers on board. It was learned to-day for the first time that for ten of the eighteen days of the Cachemiere's voyage the vessel and all on board of her were in imminent and continuous danger of the gravest character. When the steamer was but one day out from Marseilles it was reported to the captain that the soft coal in the bunkers was on fire. He at once gave orders that the strictest secreey should be observed, as if the news spread among the passengers it would be impossible to avert a panic. Immediate steps were taken to quench the fire, but it had already gained serious headway. The pumps were put to work, and heavy streams of water were poured upon the piles of coal and upon the deck above it. This was kept up day and night for ten days, and not till the end of that time was the fireentirely extinguished. The captain and crew were on almost continuous duty during that time and were completely worn out. During the whole time none of the passengers had any suspicion of the danger in which they stood, nor did they learn of it until port had been

A Large Contract

The cry is beginning to be heard from some Democratic quarters that "the Mc-Kinley bill must be repealed." It is not enough for those who raise this clamor that the effort be made to modify or amend the law, but it must be repealed outright. We hope that the Democratic party will embark in this enterprise, for it will discover before it has proceeded very far with it, that it has on its hands one of the largest contracts which it has ever undertaken. To repeal the McKinley bill means for one thing the addition of two or more cents a pound to all the sugar which the great American people puts into its tea or stirs up in its sauce. If the Democrats imagine that we are going back to dear sugar, they are very much mistaken. The repeal of the McKinley bill means closing up the woolen and worsted factories. the hosiery mills, the plush and velvet factories and the tin-plate works which have been started during the past few months. These industries will not be surrendered without a struggle. To repeal the McKinley bill means the abandonment of the special privileges and concessions which have been secured for American trade with Spanish America through the reciprocity clauses of that bill. About that, the agricultural as well as the manufacturing interests of the country will be likely to have something to say. By all means let the Democrats come right along with their proposition for the unconditional repeal of the McKinley bill. It is a good issue, and we should welcome it with pleasure.

HOTTEST DAY OF THE SEASON

Thermometers in Several Cities Record Temperatures Ranging from 90 to 100.

New Yorkers Driven to Seaside Resorts Yesterday. While Chicagoans Were Fanned by a Furnace-Like Breeze-To-Day's Outlook.

MIDSUMMER HEAT. The Hot Wave Reaches New York and the People Flee to Seaside Resorts. New York, Aug. 9.—The warm wave predicted several days ago materialized on time and continued to be very much with us yesterday and to-day. Seaside resorts and out-of-town cool spots did a land-office business. It is expected that the thermometer will remain generally on the "bull" side of the weather market at least until Thursday next, and to-day and tomorrow the hot wave is likely to have for its side partner an oppressive sultriness which will make white waistcoats and outing shirts much more comfortable than starched linen. The average temperature yesterday was 80°, something over 8° higher than the normal temperature for Aug. 8 in previous years. The highest point reached to-day was 80°, and the range about 8°. The atmosphere is intensely humid, and not a breath of air fans the perspiring residents.

In North Dakota.

JAMESTOWN, N. D., Aug. 9.-The excessive heat of the last three days was somewhat modified yesterday, the temperature at noon being 850 to 900 in the shade, and the weather is still close and damp. Reports from Wells and Forester counties to private inquiries state that the wheat has been injured in the past two days at the rate of ten bushels per acre by blight. Oats are also hurt. Slight showers last night at this place had the effect of cooling the atmosphere. No rains could be heard of elsewhere in the James river valley, and hot weather is generally reported.

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 9.-Farmers claim that the heat is not damaging wheat. The mean temperature Aug. 5 was 92°; Aug. 6, 92°; Aug. 7, 93°, and at noon yesterday, 84° in the shade. Wheat is rapidly ripening. BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 9.—There is no damage to grain on the slope by heat. Harvesting will commence generally in Burleigh county Monday. The temperature

The Lady Traveler's Suggestion.

"Why are we waiting here so long?" indignantly inquired a lady on an excursion train that was standing on a side-track. "We had to stop to fix a hot box," replied the conductor. "Well," she replied, "if you had heated them before starting, instead of leaving them till now, you would on the newspapers."

OVERLOOKED SOLDIERS.

A Blank to Be Filled by Veterans Not Counted

in the Last Census. The following blank is printed in the Journal by request of the Superintendent of Census, for the purpose of obtaining. through this paper, detailed information respecting the military services of such survivors of the war of the rebellion as were overlooked, or have reason to believe they were overlooked by the enumerator in June, 1890. All such persons are requested to fill out the blank in pencil, put it in a stamped envelope, and forward to Washington, D. C., addressed to the Superintendent of Census. Veterans who served in more than one organization are requested to give the particulars of their services in each of them. Use separate sheets of paper and answer the hottest this year in Cincinnati. The | all questions consecutively as numbered heart trouble for the past four years. Fatal Row at a Camp-Meeting.

BOYD'S STATION, Md., Aug. 9 .- A shooting affray occurred to-day at Barnesville, near this place, where a camp-meeting was going on, in which one man was killed and three others seriously wounded. While waiting for a train a party of colored men became engaged in a dispute over some cigars, when Louis Brown, of Richmond, Va., struck one of his companions with a stone. The fight became general, and five pistol shots were fired. Brown was killed.
